

CJA TRAINING PANEL
POSITIONS AVAILABLE

The United States District Court in conjunction with the Northern District of Indiana, Federal Community Defenders is overseeing a pilot program wherein attorneys who do not have the requisite experience for membership on the regular CJA Panel (see 18 U.S.C. § 3006A; Guide, Volume 7) will be eligible to assist members of the CJA Panel, in a “second chair” capacity, in order to gain the necessary experience required to provide high quality representation to defendants in federal court cases.

Attorneys serving on the CJA Training Panel are expected to be members of the bar of the district court in good standing. Each member should demonstrate a strong interest in providing criminal defense services for the indigent. Training Panel member will have the opportunity to serve on the training panel for a period of three years and compensation will not exceed $23.00 per hour for both in court and out of court services. Training Panel members will typically be assigned to one or two cases at a time. The primary purpose of the program is to provide experience to Training Panel members.

Any attorney meeting the above criteria and interested in participating on the training program is encouraged to submit his/her Resume, along with a letter of interested, to:
